ABOUT WHITE'S:

White's Residential & Family Services, located in Wabash, Indiana and at eight other offices around the state, serves more than 3,400 at-risk children and families annually—those who without assistance and guidance would fall through the cracks of society. The largest non-profit provider of such services in the state of Indiana, White's is a Christ-centered organization committed to enriching the lives of children and families through emotional healing, personal development and spiritual growth. Through residential, foster care, emergency shelter care, home-based, transitional living, and adoption services, White's seeks to create a change for good in the lives of children and families who need it most.
